San Francisco, CA

Organic, wildcrafted Skin Rescue Cream from Max Green Alchemy provides rapid hydration for dry or flaky skin caused by eczema, psoriasis, dermatitis, or as a result of environmental influences. This product, which customers have called "the miracle cream," avoids the steroids traditionally used to treat such skin afflictions, because they can thin the epidermis over time. Its synergistic formula spreads easily across the skin, providing immediate hydration, and is rapidly absorbed without leaving any greasy residue. The smooth Shea butter cream base is rich in herbal extracts, vitamins and special nutrients to reduce itching fast. It has a luxurious feel with an enchanting non-medicinal aroma of lavender, neroli and chamomile plant oils. To order call (415) 863-4155 or visit www.maxgreenalchemy.com.
